

NÄLKÄ!

The Great Finnish Famine
- A 150th Anniversary Exhibition

Two decades after Ireland's "Black '47", Finland lost almost a tenth of its population to a catastrophe that has been called "the last great famine in western Europe."

Co-funded by the European Union

OÉ Gaillimh
NUI Galway

Hunger, History and Memory

The Great Famines of Ireland and Finland Compared

Exhibition Launch and Symposium

Speakers: Cormac Ó Grada (UCD) Breandán Mac Suibhne (Centenary University) Lindsay Janssen (UCD) Andrew Newby (Aarhus University)

Chair: Anne Karhio (NUIG)

Thursday 21 June 2018, 1:30 pm – 4.30 pm

G011 Moore Institute, NUIG

ALL WELCOME

For more details see www.mooreinstitute.ie or email roisin.healy@nuigalway.ie